BELLUM TABLE IN YOUR HEAD

VOCAB = LEARN IT!

Good luck.

THE REST

Adjectives: Always come after the noun they are describing (except for 'multus-many' which comes before.)

The adjective will always agree with the noun it is describing in 3 ways:

GENDER: masculine, feminine, neuter

CASE: nominative, vocative etc

NUMBER: singular or plural

Eg. Servus bonus - the good slave

Puella bona - the good girl

Vinum bonum - the good wine

Pueros malos vidi - I saw evil boys.

REMEMBER: Acrisius perterritus

= The frightened Acrisius

NOT Acrisius was frightened and.....

Open Questions: -ne on the end of the first word of the sentence makes it question.

Eg. Puellamne amas? = Do you like the girl?

Prepositions:

These are little words that go before a noun. They make the following noun go into either the Accusative or Ablative case.

Eg. In aquam = into the water Acc case

Ab aqua = away from the water Abl case

Pronouns: ego=I tu=you nos=we vos=you(plural)

Imperatives: These are orders or instructions and will end with:

Conj	Singular	Plural
1 st	-a	-ate
2 nd	-e	-ete
3 rd	-e	-ite
4 th	-i	-ite

Eg. Currite, pueri! = Run, boys!

Infinitives: always end “-re” and mean “to....”

Eg, Romanos necare cupivit. = He wanted to kill the Romans.
